

COVID-19 SCIENCE AND POLICY SYMPOSIUM WEBINAR

17 August 2020

Event Programme

TIME	SPEAKER	TOPIC
9:15am	Webinar begins
9:20am	Dr David Katz - Medical Doctor and Preventive Medicine Specialist, New York	COVID-19 in New York, and the total harm minimisation approach to managing COVID-19.
10:00am	Dr Jay Bhattacharya - Medical Doctor and Professor of Medicine, Stanford University	How deadly is the virus, and the long-term costs of lockdowns.
10:40am	BREAK
11:00am	Dr Byram Bridle - Viral Immunologist, The University of Guelph	Towards a COVID-19 vaccine.
11:40am	Professor Sunetra Gupta - Professor of Theoretical Epidemiology, The University of Oxford	Herd immunity and our international responsibilities.
12:10pm	BREAK
1:10pm	Dr Simon Thornley - Senior Lecturer in Epidemiology, The University of Auckland	What we know about the infection fatality rate and how that should influence our border response.
1:40pm	Dr Grant Morris - Associate Professor of Law, Victoria University of Wellington	Civil liberty issues now and into the future.
2:10pm	Professor Ananish Chaudhuri - Professor of Experimental Economics, The University of Auckland	Economic recovery without lockdowns and closed borders.
2:40pm	Ben Smith PH. D - Data Scientist	How the world is opening borders; the data.
3:10pm	BREAK
3:30pm	Dr Carlo Caduff - Associate Professor of Global Health and Social Medicine, King's College London	The health, social behaviour, and psychological drivers of pandemic responses.
4:10pm	David Seymour MP - Leader of the ACT Party
4:20pm	Webinar ends	